AUDIT COMMITTEE

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Constitution

1. The board of directors (the “Board”) of Huajin International Holdings Limited (the “Company”) has resolved to establish a Committee of the Board to be known as the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) at a meeting held on 23 March 2016.

Membership and Quorum

2. The Committee should be appointed by the Board from amongst the non-executive directors and independent non-executive directors of the Company and should consist of not less than three members, a majority of whom should be independent non-executive directors of the Company. A quorum should be two members, of whom one has to be an independent non-executive director of the Company (“INED”).
3. The chairman of the Committee should be appointed by the Board and must be an INED.
4. At least one Committee member is an INED with appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise as required under rule 3.10(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”).

A former partner of the Company’s existing auditing firm is prohibited from acting as a member of the Committee for a period of 1 year from the date of his ceasing: (a) to be a partner of the firm; or (b) to have any financial interest in the firm, whichever is later.

5. Any member should not appoint any person by himself as his alternate to attend the meeting or perform his duty.

Secretary

6. The company secretary of the Company, or in his absence, his representative, should act as the secretary of the Committee (the “Secretary”). The Committee may from time to time appoint any other person with appropriate qualification and experience as Secretary.

Frequency of meetings

7. The Committee should meet at least twice a year. Additional meetings should be held if the Committee considers it necessary or upon request of the Company's external auditors.

Notice of meetings

8. The notice of any meetings of the Committee has to be given at least 14 days prior to any such meeting being held, unless all members unanimously waive such notice. Irrespective of the length of notice being given, attendance of a meeting by a member should be deemed waiver of the requisite length of notice by the member. Notice of any adjourned meeting is not required if the adjournment is less than 14 days.
9. The notice of meeting should state the date, time and venue of the meeting, and an agenda should attach to the notice.
10. Proceedings of meetings of the Committee should be governed by the provisions of the articles of association of the Company.
11. The Secretary should keep full minutes of all Committee meetings. Draft and final versions of minutes of the meetings should be sent to all Committee members for their comment and records, within a reasonable time after the meeting.
12. The chief financial officer of the Company and a representative of the Company's external auditors should normally attend the meetings. The Committee may, from time to time, invite any appropriate person to attend the meeting whenever it is necessary. However, only members of the Committee are entitled to vote at the meetings. The Committee should meet with the external auditors in the absence of management (except by invitation of the Committee).

Authority

13. The Committee is authorised by the Board:
 - (a) to investigate any activity within its terms of reference;
 - (b) to inspect all accounts, books and records of the Company; and
 - (c) to seek any information it requires from any employee and all employees are directed to cooperate with any request made by the Committee.
14. The Committee is authorised by the Board where necessary to obtain outside legal or other professional advice and to secure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary.

15. The Committee should be provided with sufficient resources to perform its duties.

Duties

The duties of the Committee should be:
